BROADWAY CINEMA
Presents...

4 NOVEMBER – 9 DECEMBER

We're indulging in the dramatic with a season of melodrama on screen that charts the history of the much-maligned genre, from the classics of the 1940s and '50s to the more recent homages – reverent, tacky or both – that came in the decades that followed.

MORE SCREENINGS IN DECEMBER

NEW RELEASES

THE CHORAL (12A)

From Fri 7 Nov

Director Nicholas Hyter UK, 2025, 113m
Starring Ralph Fiennes, Mark Addy

Ralph Fiennes leads an excellent ensemble in this funny and moving WWI drama by beloved writer Alan Bennett. When a Yorkshire village's choral society finds its ranks depleted as men head off to war, the society is forced to change its entry rules to enlist some unlikely teens and the musically gifted but socially scandalous Dr. Guthrie.

DIE MY LOVE (15)

From Fri 7 Nov

Director Lynne Ramsey USA, 2025, 119m
Starring Jennifer Lawrence, Robert Pattinson

Lynne Ramsay (Ratcatcher, We Need to Talk About Kevin) directs this visceral and uncompromising portrait of a woman engulfed by love and madness. Hopeful young couple Grace and Jackson move from New York to a house in the country with their new baby. But Grace's psyche has changed following the birth, unleashing in her a restlessness that drives her to the brink of her sanity.

TRAIN DREAMS (CTBC)

From Fri 7 Nov

Director Clint Bentley USA, 2025, 102m
Starring Joel Edgerton, Felicity Jones

In this haunting and lyrical adaptation of Denis Johnson's acclaimed novella, director Clint Bentley channels Terrence Malick to craft a visually arresting story of solitude and survival in early 20th-century America. Edgerton's quietly devastating performance captures the embittered spirit of a man shaped by love, loss and the tumult of a disappearing world.

NUREMBURG (CTBC)

From Fri 14 Nov

Director James Vanderbilt USA/Hungary, 2025, 148m
Starring Russell Crowe, Rami Malek

A gripping historical drama with a terrific ensemble cast including Russell Crowe and Rami Malek, the latest from writer-director James Vanderbilt chronicles the complicated efforts required to bring to justice those who oversaw many of history's most heinous crimes.

WICKED: FOR GOOD (PG)

From Fri 21 Nov

Director Jon M. Chu USA, 2025, 138m
Starring Cynthia Erivo, Ariana Grande

Last year's global sensation now reaches its epic, electrifying conclusion.

The final chapter of the untold story of the witches of Oz begins with Elphaba and Glinda estranged and living with the consequences of their choices. But when a girl from Kansas comes crashing into their lives, they'll need to come together one final time, if they are to change themselves - and all of Oz - for good.

THE THING WITH FEATHERS (CTBC)

Fri 21 Nov

Director Dylan Southern UK, 2025, 98m
Starring Benedict Cumberbatch, Eric Lampaert

Oscar-nominee Benedict Cumberbatch stars in The Thing With Feathers, adapted from the award-winning debut novel by Max Porter. After a tragic loss, a grieving father tries to raise his young sons whilst dealing with an unlikely, unpredictable, and uninvited houseguest.

WAKE UP DEAD MAN: A KNIVES OUT MYSTERY (CTBC)

From Wed 26 Nov

Director Rian Johnson USA, 2025, 140m
Starring Daniel Craig, Josh O'Connor

Daniel Craig returns for his third outing as contemporary cinema's favourite detective, Benoit Blanc, in Rian Johnson's sharply penned and devilishly fun reinvention of the classic whodunit. Joining Craig in another stacked cast this time are Josh O'Connor, Glenn Close and Andrew Scott.

PILLION (18)

From Fri 28 Nov

Director Harry Lighton UK, 2025, 107m
Starring Alexander Skarsgård, Harry Melling

A shy young man finds his place in the world as the submissive to a handsome biker, in Harry Lighton's charming, sexy and tender debut. Navigating his new role, he learns about its pleasures and pains, including those that come with love, and in the process understanding his own boundaries.
