FROM FRIDAY 22 JULY

Where the Crawdads Sing (TBC)

Director: Olivia Newman
Year: 2022
Country: USA
Duration: TBC

Starring: Daisy Edgar Jones, Harris Dickinson

From the best-selling novel comes a captivating mystery. It tells the story of Kya, an abandoned girl who raised herself to adulthood in the dangerous marshlands of North Carolina. For years, rumours of the “Marsh Girl” haunted Barkley Cove, isolating Kya from her community. Drawn to two young men from town, Kya opens herself to a new and startling world; but when one of them is found dead, she is immediately cast by the community as the main suspect.

Hit the Road (12A)

Director: Panah Panahi
Year: 2021
Country: Iran
Duration: 94m

Starring:
Pantea Panahiha,
Hasan Majuni
With English subtitles

A family takes a road trip across endless miles of rugged Iranian landscape. Dad's got a broken leg whilst Mum fusses over their pet dog. Their energetic youngest son sings whilst his elder brother tries to concentrate on the road. The claustrophobia in the car grows, but so does the love and affection they have for each other.

+ Rola & Emad's Story (10m)

Hit the Road will be preceded by this short film created by the charity Framework. In 2017, Rola and Emad fled the horrors of war-torn Syria and resettled in Newark.

Director: Wim Wenders
Year: 1984
Country: USA
Duration: 139m

Starring:
Harry Dean Stanton,
Nastassja Kinski

Wim Wenders (Wings of Desire) brings his keen eye for landscape to the American Southwest in a profoundly moving character study written by Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Sam Shepard. It follows the mysterious, nearly mute drifter Travis as he tries to reconnect with his young son, living with his brother in Los Angeles, and his missing wife. A powerful statement on masculinity and the myth of the American family, and an exquisite visual exploration of a vast, crumbling world of canyons and neon. – Criterion Collection

Fire of Love (TBC)

Director: Sara Dosa

Year: 2022

Country: Canada

Duration: 93m

Fire of Love is the story of intrepid French scientists Katia and Maurice Krafft, who loved two things — each other, and volcanoes. For two decades, the daring French volcanologist couple roamed the planet, chasing eruptions and documenting their discoveries.

Drawing from the Kraffts' spectacular archive, this lyrical celebration of the intrepid scientists' spirit of adventure tells a story of primordial creation and destruction, and two bold explorers as they venture into the unknown.

Director: Martin Bourboulon
Year: 2021
Country: France
Duration: 108m

Starring: Romain Duris,
Emma Mackey
With English subtitles

Having already achieved international recognition for his work, engineer Gustave Eiffel was in high demand. The French government wanted something special for the 1889 World's Fair, and so the engineer embarked on the all-consuming task of designing and constructing one of the world's best-loved landmarks – the Eiffel Tower. Initially struggling for inspiration, everything changes when Eiffel encounters a mysterious woman – the beguiling and powerful Adrienne Bourgès, whose relationship with Eiffel was instrumental in shaping the skyline of Paris and the future of the city.

Director: Perry Henzell
Year: 1972
Country: Jamaica
Duration: 103m

Starring: Jimmy Cliff,
Janet Bartley,
Carl Bradshaw

Universally credited with introducing reggae and the roots movement to the world as a serious cultural proposition, The Harder They Come celebrates its 50th anniversary this year. Filmmaker Perry Henzell's unfiltered portrait of Jamaica's music industry, the emerging Rasta faith and how so many Jamaicans lived, both in the town and the country, redefined a genre of music, giving it context and weight. Five decades on, that excitement and sense of discovery remain undimmed whilst Jimmy Cliff brings a knockout soundtrack and charisma aplenty to this classic crime drama. BFI

The Witch (15)

Director: Robert Eggers
Year: 2015
Country: USA

Duration: 89m
Starring: Anya Taylor-Joy,
Kate Dickie

New England, 1630. Upon threat of banishment by the church, an English farmer leaves his colonial plantation, relocating his wife and five children to a remote plot of land on the edge of an ominous forest—within which lurks an unknown evil. With suspicion and paranoia mounting, family members accuse teenage daughter Thomasin of witchcraft, charges she adamantly denies. As circumstances grow more treacherous, each family member's faith, loyalty and love become tested in shocking and unforgettable ways.

The Exorcist (18)

Director: William Friedkin
Year: 1973

Duration: 132m
Starring: Ellen Burstyn,
Max Von Sydow

Belief in evil. Belief that evil can be cast out. From these two strands of faith, author William Peter Blatty and director William Friedkin wove The Exorcist, the frightening and realistic story of an innocent girl inhabited by a malevolent entity. This is the terrifying tale of her mother's frantic resolve to save her and two priests - one doubt-ridden, the other a rock of faith - joined in battling ultimate evil.

The Evil Dead (18)

Director: Sam Raimi
Year: 1982
Country: USA

Duration: 85m
Starring: Bruce Campbell,

Five college friends travel to a cabin in the woods, where they find an audio tape that, when played, releases a legion of demons and spirits. Sam Raimi's seminal 1982 horror made a cult icon of star Bruce Campbell, turned its director into hot property and spawned a franchise. Much imitated but never bettered, The Evil Dead was the birth of an independently spirited, viscerally-minded new wave in low budget horror cinema.

Rosemary's Baby (18)

Director: Roman Polanski
Year: 1968
Country: USA

Duration: 131m
Starring: Mia Farrow,
John Cassavetes

Horrifying and darkly comic, Rosemary's Baby was Roman Polanski's Hollywood debut. This wildly entertaining nightmare, faithfully adapted from Ira Levin's bestseller, stars a revelatory Mia Farrow as a young mother-to-be who grows increasingly suspicious that her overfriendly elderly neighbours (played by Sidney Blackmer and an Oscar-winning Ruth Gordon) and self-involved husband (John Cassavetes) are hatching a satanic plot against her and her baby. In the decades of occult cinema that Polanski's ungodly masterpiece has spawned, it has never been outdone for sheer psychological terror. - Criterion Collection
